THE POWER¹ OF ONE

Why Choose Prime?

The best testimony of why it makes sense to use Prime Business Solutions for your print, promotional, and office supply needs comes from our clients.

"No problem. Consider it handled"... is the typical response from one of Prime's Customer Service Representatives. They are familiar with your account and know and understand your specific requirements. Each company representative is solution driven and trained to effectively respond to every request.

- Consistent Pricing
- Greater Operating Efficiencies
- Brand Management
- More Quality Control

With 30 years experience behind it as a business forms manufacturer, Prime Business Solutions has emerged to become one of the largest manufacturers and distributors of commercial and forms printing nationwide. The Company was recently acknowledged to be one of the top 100 largest print distributors in the country by the industry's leading trade association (Document Management Industries Association, DMIA).

In recent years, Prime's growth in worldwide distribution services spawned opportunities for Prime to expand its product offerings to include promotional products, wearables, consumable office supplies and computer products. The Company now serves many national and multiple-site companies with supply solutions and services that translate into operational controls and cost savings for the large and growing company.

Prime Business Solutions believes in the simple premise of "being easy to do business with" and has developed streamlined ordering and delivery processes that utilize on-line applications. Those e-commerce solutions are now the backbone of the company and have paved the way for Prime to become an industry leader in not only business forms but in many of the purchasing needs of large and small companies.

Whether you choose some or all of our product options, it is up to you. Prime is here to offer products to support your business and marketing needs.

Fulfillment:

Different vendors, separate deliveries, distinct distribution points, varying invoices and purchase orders all create transactional costs that can add to the ultimate cost of the purchasing process. Prime Business Solutions is your answer to managing some of these costs and building a consistent delivery system for your purchased goods.

It's our attention to detail that distinguishes Prime Business Solutions. We recognize the importance of a dependable delivery system and feel strongly that our fulfillment practices are the best in the industry.

Whether your needs are regional, national, or international, no release is too complex. Our automated distribution centers currently ship to all 50 states and 67 countries worldwide. A 24-hour turn-around-time is guaranteed on all stocked items, and releases can be made on-line, by phone, or by fax. On-line orders are generally packaged for delivery in less than 30 minutes.

Prime Business Solutions is the single source supplier that helps you save money with a fully integrated e-commerce and distribution apparatus.

“Prime has helped us control costs. A single supplier reduces the number of vendors and requisitions necessary to do business across the country. Locking in a unified price and cost center controls initiated by Prime makes life a lot simpler.”
